Thank you for registering as a World Partnership Walk Workplace Team Captain. You haven't just chosen to support a cause, you've chosen to bring others with you. That's how individual leadership grows into a national movement, thousands strong. In the weeks ahead, you'll join workplace leaders across Canada rallying their organizations, inspiring colleagues, working toward ambitious fundraising goals, and having fun along the way.

By stepping into this role, you'll help mobilize support for life-changing development projects and be recognized within your company and across Canada. And you won't be alone. We're here with the tools, pro tips, and guidance to help you clarify your "why," build momentum, and achieve your goals.
